Introduction and welcome

HYMN 1 Come down O Love divine (please click on this link to hear the hymn) or Come Holy Ghost our souls inspire

The Welcome

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit

All Amen.

The Lord be with you

All And also with you.

Jesus Christ, whom we worship, is our crucified, risen and ascended Lord and we have been privileged to walk with him through his journey of love.

We have faced the agony of his suffering and death on a cross. We have rejoiced at his bursting free from the bonds of death. We have enjoyed his risen presence with us and his revelation of himself through the breaking of bread. We have seen his return to the throne before which every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that this Jesus is Lord.

And now, with the followers of his own time, we wait the coming of the promised Holy Spirit, his gift to his people, through whom we make Christ known to the world.

The Preparation

All Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said:

The first commandment is this:

‘Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is the only Lord.

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind,
and with all your strength.’

And the second is this: ‘Love your neighbour as yourself.’

There is no other commandment greater than these.

On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

The Spirit of truth will convict the world of guilt about sin, righteousness and judgement. We have grieved the Holy Spirit. So we confess our sins in penitence and faith, firmly resolved to keep God’s commandments and to live in love and peace with all.

All Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we have sinned against you and against our neighbour in thought and word and deed, through negligence, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry
and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
who died for us,
forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life to the glory of your name. Amen.

Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent, have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Gloria

This version of the Gloria is sung to the tune of 'Cwm Rhondda'. Click here for the tune.

All Glory be to God in Heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring,
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing.
Lord we thank you, Lord we praise you,
Glory be to God our King:
Glory be to God our King.

Lamb of God, who on our shoulders,
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within.
Lord, have mercy, Christ have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin:
Now your glorious reign begin.

You O Son of God are Holy,
You we praise with one accord.
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord.
With the Father and the Spirit,
Ever worshipped and adored:
Ever worshipped and adored.

The Collect for Pentecost

Holy Spirit,
sent by the Father,
ignite in us your holy fire;
strengthen your children with the gift of faith, revive your Church with the breath of love,
and renew the face of the earth,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

First reading

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place.

Suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs— in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.'

All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.' But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: "In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved".' Acts 2:1-21

This is the Word of the Lord

All Thanks be to God.

Second reading

A reading from the First Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

No one can say 'Jesus is Lord' except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptised into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. 1 Corinthians 12:3b-13

All Thanks be to God.

Gospel reading

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

All Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples, 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.' John 14:15-21

This is the Gospel of the Lord

All Praise to you O Christ.

Sermon

Embedded in the early chapters of the Old Testament lies a rather curious story. We generally call it the ‘Tower of Babel’ (it appears in Genesis Chapter 10): the people of earth refuse to listen to God and manifest their arrogance in building a high tower. The prose implied they want to colonise heaven by force and build a vast tower as a kind of vertical bridge. They’re no longer willing to enter heaven through the usual methods of prayer and holiness of life. Violence is easier.

God confuses their language as way of thwarting them. Before this episode, everyone on earth speaks a common language but at Babel they become incomprehensible. (It’s telling how this story about the scrambling of language gives us the word ‘babble.’) By confusing their language, God prevents their cooperation and heaven is made safe.

This chapter is clearly a legend or parable but it seeks to convey the obvious truth that cooperation leads to positive results.

We often read the Genesis passage at Pentecost just before the reading from Acts 2 (above). Acts 2 describes the Holy Spirit enabling the disciples to speak new languages. That’s why Pentecost is often seen as the Holy Spirit reversing the curse of Babel.

At the heart of Jesus’ mission is a concept he called ‘The Kingdom’. It means creating a society in which everyone and everything depends on God. But creating this Kingdom is difficult so we need help. Clearly we can pray for it; that’s why Jesus’ special prayer starts with the petition, ‘Your Kingdom come ...’ But what does an answer to that prayer actually look like?

The Holy Spirit does not hide himself inside a human life but changes the host person from the inside out. That person’s life develops the so-called ‘fruit of the Spirit’. Their behaviour improves: he or she becomes more loving, joyful, peaceful, patient, kinder, gentler ... (Galatians 5). Most people are more willing to collaborate with a person who behaves in these ways than to a similar person who does not. But the kindness and love create opportunities and lubricate each constructive gesture.

The Holy Spirit does not merely enter a Christian soul to create a new and better discipleship: he also wants to create a new form of community. The person living with the Spirit is not ruled from above by a human leader or council/group but chooses to share their life with a group of believers. These other believers each respond to the Holy Spirit. And as Christians learn to be disciples to the Spirit, they develop the skills of looking for the Spirit in those fellow disciples. They then listen, share, and cooperate.

The Holy Spirit therefore moves true disciples in two directions: holiness of life for the self and mutual flourishing for the community of believers. The Holy Spirit is therefore both reversing the curse of Babel and building the Kingdom of God.

As we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost, we're therefore not just remembering a past event but encouraging each other to create a new kind of community—a society of the Spirit, a family of the redeemed. That's why today's service ends with a short litany of re-commitment to building a better world. We therefore need to listen to the Holy Spirit as he impels us to build the Kingdom.

The Creed

Do you believe and trust in God the Father,
the source of all being and life,
the one for whom we exist?

All We believe and trust in him.

Do you believe and trust in God the Son,
who took our human nature,
died for us and rose again?

All We believe and trust in him.

Do you believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God and makes Christ known in the world?

All We believe and trust in him.

This is the faith of the Church.

All This is our faith.
We believe and trust in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Prayers of intercession

We ask God to fill us with His Spirit. We pray that His Holy Spirit may direct our lives, saying, Lord, come and bless us:

All and fill us with your Spirit.

We pray for Your Spirit, without whom we are dead, for the Spirit is 'the Lord, the giver of life.'

Lord, come and bless us:

All and fill us with your Spirit.

We pray for Your Spirit to renew the Church, that we can be your Body here on earth. Grant to the Church strength, wisdom, and judgement through the Holy Spirit.

Lord, come and bless us:

All and fill us with your Spirit.

We pray for Your Spirit, because through him we can have 'The mind of Christ.' Give us right judgement for our families and friendships, and work, knowing your presence in every situation.

Lord, come and bless us:

All and fill us with your Spirit.

We pray for Your Spirit, and the fruits of the Spirit. We ask that you will help us grow in love, joy and peace; patience, kindness and goodness; and in faithfulness, gentleness and self control. Reveal in our lives the love of Jesus:

Lord, come and bless us:

All and fill us with your Spirit.

We pray for Your Spirit, and for the gifts of the Spirit. We ask you to equip us for the work you have given us to do.

Lord, come and bless us:

All and fill us with your Spirit.

We pray for Your Spirit in the world. Change those places where there is speech without communication, relationship without love. Show people everywhere their true needs and teach them how to live together without fear.

Lord, come and bless us:

All and fill us with your Spirit.

Generous God, you sent your Holy Spirit on Your Messiah when he was baptised in the River Jordan; and upon his disciples in the upper room; in Your mercy, fill us with Your Spirit. We ask that You will send the Spirit on us.

We offer these prayers, Your Spirit interceding for us before Your throne of power.

Merciful Father,

All accept these prayers for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

The peace

God has made us one in Christ. He has set his seal upon us and, as a pledge of what is to come, has given the Spirit to dwell in our hearts.

The peace of the Lord be always with you,

All And also with you. Alleluia!

HYMN 3 Spirit of the living God \(please click on this link to hear the hymn\)

The liturgy of the Communion Service appears below

The Dismissal

HYMN 4 You shall go out with joy \(please click on this link to hear the hymn\)

The Lord is here!

All His Spirit is with us.

Today we have remembered the coming of God's power on the disciples and we invite that same Spirit to drive us out into the wild places of the world.

For fifty days we have celebrated the victory of our Lord Jesus Christ over the powers of sin and death. We have proclaimed God's mighty acts and we have prayed that the power that was at work when God raised Jesus from the dead might be at work in us.

Therefore, as part of God's Church here in Oldham, I call upon you to live out what you proclaim.

Empowered by the Holy Spirit, will you dare to walk into God's future, trusting him to be your guide?

All We will.

Will you dare to embrace each other and grow together in love?

All We will.

Will you dare to share your riches in common and minister to each other in need?

All We will.

Will you dare to pray for each other until your hearts beat with the longings of God?

All We will.

Will you dare to carry the light of Christ into the world's dark places?

All We will.

The blessing

May the Spirit,
who hovered over the waters when the world was created, breathe into you the life he gives.

All Amen

May the Spirit,
who overshadowed the Virgin when the eternal Son came among us, make you joyful in the service of the Lord.

All Amen

May the Spirit,
who set the Church on fire upon the Day of Pentecost, bring the world alive with the love of the risen Christ.

All Amen

And the blessing of God the Almighty
Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be with you now and remain with you always.

All Amen

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

Eucharistic Prayer (prayer E)

The Lord be with you

All and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give you thanks,
holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

For he is our great high priest who has entered once for all into the heavenly sanctuary, evermore to pour upon your Church
the grace and comfort of your Holy Spirit.

He is the one who has gone before us, who calls us to be united in prayer as were his disciples in the upper room while they awaited his promised gift, the life-giving Spirit of Pentecost.

Therefore all creation yearns with eager longing
as angels and archangels sing the endless hymn of praise:

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

We praise and bless you, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command,
send your Holy Spirit,
that broken bread and wine outpoured may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you.
He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did, in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross.

Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes in glory.

Great is the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
 Christ is risen.
 Christ will come again.

Lord of all life,
help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.

Look with favour on your people, gather us in your loving arms and bring us with all the Spirit-filled saints to feast at your table in heaven.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

All Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
grant us peace.

Draw near with faith.

Receive the body of our Lord Jesus Christ which he gave for you, and his blood which he shed for you.

Eat and drink in remembrance that he died for you, and feed on him in your hearts
by faith with thanksgiving.

All We do not presume to come to this your table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in your manifold and great mercies.
We are not worthy
so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table.
But you are the same Lord whose nature is always to have mercy.
Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him,
and he in us.
Amen.

Communion is distributed.

Prayer after Communion

God our Father,
you have raised our humanity in Christ and have fed us with the bread of heaven:
mercifully grant that, nourished with such spiritual blessings,
we may set our hearts in the heavenly places;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen

All Almighty God,
we thank you for feeding us with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
Through him we offer you our souls and bodies to be a living sacrifice.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work
to your praise and glory.
Amen.
