HYMN 1 10 000 reasons

(please click on this link to hear the hymn)

The Welcome

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit

All Amen.

The Lord be with you

All And also with you.

The Preparation

All Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said:

The first commandment is this:

‘Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is the only Lord.

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart,
with all your soul, with all your mind,
and with all your strength.’

And the second is this: ‘Love your neighbour as yourself.’

There is no other commandment greater than these.

On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son Jesus Christ to save us from our sins, to be our advocate in heaven, and to bring us to eternal life. Therefore, let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, firmly resolved to keep God’s commandments and to live in love and peace with all.

All Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we have sinned against you and against our neighbour in thought and word and deed, through negligence, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry
and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
who died for us,
forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life to the glory of your name. Amen.

Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent, have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Gloria

All Glory be to God in Heaven, Songs of joy and peace we bring,
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing.
Lord we thank you, Lord we praise you,
Glory be to God our King:
Glory be to God our King.

Lamb of God, who on our shoulders,
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within.

Lord, have mercy, Christ have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin:
Now your glorious reign begin.

You O Son of God are Holy,
You we praise with one accord.
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord.
With the Father and the Spirit,
Ever worshipped and adored:
Ever worshipped and adored.

The Collect for the Sixth Sunday after Trinity

Creator God,
you made us all in your image:
may we discern you in all that we see,
and serve you in all that we do;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

First reading

A reading from the prophecy of Isaiah

Thus says the Lord, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, the Lord of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; besides me there is no god. Who is like me? Let them proclaim it, let them declare and set it forth before me. Who has announced from of old the things to come? Let them tell us what is yet to be. Do not fear, or be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? You are my witnesses! Is there any god besides me? There is no other rock; I know not one. Isaiah 44:6-8

All Thanks be to God.

Second reading

A reading from St Paul's Letter to the Romans

Brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh— for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, 'Abba! Father!' it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God.

We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Romans 8:12–25

Gospel reading

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

All Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus put before the crowd another parable: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field; but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well. And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, "Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?" He replied, "An enemy has done this." The slaves said to him, "Then do you want us to go and gather them?" But he replied, "No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them. Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn".'

Jesus then left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, 'Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.' He answered, 'The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.

Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!

Matthew 13:24–30,36–43

This is the Gospel of the Lord

All Praise to you O Christ.

Sermon

Jesus taught using parables. He used everyday things that everyone knew but the meaning was always lost. The disciples would always ask him what he meant every time he told a parable. Today we have one such parable: the wheat and the weeds.

In this parable, Jesus is the master who plants the wheat. He goes away and the enemy, in this case the devil, comes and plants the weeds. The wheat in this parable represents the children of God who hears his word and do what he says. The weeds are those who reject him.

Around this time, the Jews had rejected Jesus because he was not what they were expecting the Messiah to be. They thought the Messiah would come in armour and destroy all those who were persecuting them and bring about new way of living. But here was Jesus teaching in parables and about love. They could not understand how they could love the very people who were persecuting them. The Kingdom is not what they expected at all or what they had in mind.

The wheat in this parable is us, the children of God. Even we at times are confused by the way the world is like today. There is so much suffering and pain everywhere. I am sure I am not the only one who thought once I was a Christian everything would be perfect; all my problems would disappear. But in the parable, the master was patient with the weeds. I understand the weed here could be darnel, a weed that resembles wheat when it starts to grow. That's probably why the master told his servants not to uproot it otherwise they would have uprooted the wheat along with the weeds.

We too, like Jesus should be patient with the other wheat, that is, with fellow Christians. As Christians we all believe that Jesus is Lord, he came down to earth and died on the cross. He rose again for our salvation. We either believe him or we do not; we are either in or out, part of his family or not. There is no option to be in between. So as Christians we should show humility towards each other. Its OK to read a Scripture passage and have different understanding or follow different traditions within each denomination. We should remember we are the wheat in this passage and not attack one another. It undermines the message that Jesus was trying to teach, that of love.

We, instead need to understand that we are in the same corner, the family of God. We need to do as he commands in John 13:34, '... love one another as I have loved you.' Nobody has a perfect understanding of God and his ways, so we need to have humility and be kind to one another. Only Jesus has all the answers. We need to understand that we all believe in God the Trinity and that we are all saved by his grace. We can't look down on other Christians or anyone because what we know is because the Holy Spirit has opened our eyes to as it says in Romans 14:1, 'as for the weak in faith, welcome him, but not to quarrel over opinions.'

Let us not judge each other by what we eat or not eat, drink, or what they have. That is the job of the master. Let us be gracious and loving towards each other, after all we are all wheat. We need each other and we learn from each other. Let us allow other Christians to challenge us in good productive ways. We are all one family and can learn from each other with the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

On the other hand, the weeds are those who deny Jesus. This is the result of the devil scattering the weeds after Jesus, the master, had planted the wheat. They may look like they have it all but their happiness is only temporary. More often than not we hear, 'Do what you want. Live your life as you please' But let us not be tempted. This is the devil scattering seeds of deception which will lead to rebellion against God. Let us remember that God, in his mercy and because of his great love and by his grace saved us and raised us up.

The servants asked the master if they should uproot the weeds. That is not our job. It is the master's job. God will deal with the weeds at the right time. People often ask why there is so much suffering in the world. Why is God allowing all these bad things to happen? The time will come when the weeds will be dealt with. The gospel says, 'and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evil-doers, and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' Even when our situation is bad, God remains God, good and faithful. As it says in the passage from Isaiah, 'There is no other rock.' We need learn to trust more and more in Him and lean on him alone.

Take note of how the master is patient with the weeds. We too should be patient with everyone. Our only job is to do as he commands, "to love one another." We too should be nurturing to those who have not heard. Our good works should preach the goodness and mercy of God to the world. Let us patiently and obediently wait on our Lord. For Paul tells us, 'We are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ.' Therefore, let us allow ourselves to be led by the spirit and the kingdom of God will be ours to inherit.

May we remember to be our brother's keeper during this difficult time, checking on our neighbours, family and friends. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

Eucharistic Prayer (prayer E)

The Lord be with you

All and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give thanks and praise.

Father, you made the world and love your creation.
You gave your Son Jesus Christ to be our Saviour.
His dying and rising have set us free from sin and death.
And so we gladly thank you,
with saints and angels praising you, and saying,

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

We praise and bless you, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command,
send your Holy Spirit,
that broken bread and wine outpoured
may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you.
He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did, in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross.

Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes in glory.

Great is the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Lord of all life,
help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.

Look with favour on your people, gather us in your loving arms and bring us with all the saints to feast at your table in heaven.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

All Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
grant us peace.

Draw near with faith.

Receive the body of our Lord Jesus Christ
which he gave for you,
and his blood which he shed for you.

Eat and drink in remembrance that he died for you, and feed on him in your hearts
by faith with thanksgiving.

All We do not presume to come to this your table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in your manifold and great mercies.
We are not worthy
so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table.
But you are the same Lord whose nature is always to have mercy.
Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him,
and he in us.
Amen.

Communion is distributed.

Prayer after Communion

Grant, O Lord, we beseech you, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by your governance, that your Church may joyfully serve you in all godly quietness;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen

All Almighty God,
we thank you for feeding us with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
Through him we offer you our souls and bodies
to be a living sacrifice.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work
to your praise and glory.
Amen.
