St Alban

St Albans Cathedral: traditionally the site of Alban's martyrdom. A sumptuous tomb and reliquary existed here until the Reformation.

Alban was a soldier in the Roman city of Verulamium (now St Albans in Hertfordshire). He gave shelter to a Christian priest fleeing from persecution, hiding him in his house for several days. Alban was greatly influenced by the priest's devotion; he received instruction and was converted.

When the priest's hiding-place was discovered, Alban dressed himself in the priest's cloak and was arrested in his place. The Roman authorities tortured Alban when he refused to renounce his faith. He was beheaded on this day, probably in the year 250, and so became the first British martyr.

Introduction and welcome

HYMN 1 One Church, one faith, one Lord (click on this link to hear the hymn)

The Welcome

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit

All Amen.

The Lord be with you

All And also with you.

The Preparation

All Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit,
that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said:

The first commandment is this:

‘Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is the only Lord.

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart,
with all your soul, with all your mind,
and with all your strength.’

And the second is this: ‘Love your neighbour as yourself.’

There is no other commandment greater than these.

On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

The saints were faithful unto death
and now dwell in the heavenly kingdom for ever.
As we celebrate their joy,
let us bring to the Lord our sins and weaknesses,
and ask for his mercy.

All Almighty God, our heavenly Father,
we have sinned against you and against our neighbour
in thought and word and deed,
through negligence, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry
and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
who died for us,
forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life
to the glory of your name.
Amen.

Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent, have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Gloria

This Gloria is sung to the tune of 'Cwm Rhondda'. Click here for the tune.

All Glory be to God in Heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring,
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing.
Lord we thank you, Lord we praise you,
Glory be to God our King:
Glory be to God our King.

Lamb of God, who on our shoulders,
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within.
Lord, have mercy, Christ have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin:
Now your glorious reign begin.

You O Son of God are Holy,
You we praise with one accord.
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord.
With the Father and the Spirit,
Ever worshipped and adored:
Ever worshipped and adored.

The Collect for St Alban

Eternal Father,
when the gospel of Christ first came to our land
you gloriously confirmed the faith of Alban by making him the first to win a martyr's crown:
grant that, following his example,
in the fellowship of the saints
we may worship you, the living God,
and give true witness to Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

First reading

A reading from the book of Wisdom

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace.' Wisdom 3:1-3

This is the Word of the Lord

All Thanks be to God.

Second reading

A reading from the Second Letter of St Paul to Timothy

Share in suffering like a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No one serving in the army gets entangled in everyday affairs; the soldier's aim is to please the enlisting officer. And in the case of an athlete, no one is crowned without competing according to the rules. It is the farmer who does the work who ought to have the first share of the crops. Think over what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in all things.

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful—for he cannot deny himself.

2 Timothy 2:3–13

This is the Word of the Lord

All Thanks be to God.

Gospel reading

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

All Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus said, 'Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honour. John 12:24–26

This is the Gospel of the Lord

All Praise to you O Christ.

Sermon

Jesus had no time for sentimental notions about human life. He knew all its reality. According to the Gospel writers, he was aware that his own life would be cut short. The stance he took ... the things he did ... the people he mixed with ... his outspoken attacks on religious and political authorities alike ... all these things combined to make it certain that he would not be allowed to live to a ripe old age.

In John's Gospel in particular, we find him trying to break through his disciples' denial and misunderstanding, and prepare them for his death and what it would mean.

Jesus and his disciples lived close to nature. Some were farmers, some fisherman by trade. They knew the cycles of nature, and human powerlessness in the face of nature's insistence. So Jesus turns to nature for a metaphor to try and help them understand.

He speaks of a single grain. Held in the hand, it is useless. It needs to be put into the ground, where it breaks down as if it is dead. From that death, comes life; the wheat seed grows to become a plant with many grains that can be used for food. This, Jesus suggests, is what his death is about. His effect on the world will be minimal while he is alive, but from his death will come an abundance of new life, enough for all the world. That is why he will not try to avoid his death. He knows that true life ... for him and for those to come after him ... only comes on the other side of death.

Jesus is not just speaking of himself. He talks about his followers needing to be ready to lose their lives in order to gain life. Being afraid of death ... trying to delay it at all costs ... trying to defeat the signs of ageing, all these things preoccupy people. The obsession with preserving our lives as they are, prevents us from attending to the kind of life that really matters, life that is full and generous and truthful.

Alban, who we remember today, could easily have avoided a martyr's death. He could have given up the priest he was shielding, and denied his newly born faith in the promises of Jesus, out of fear for his life. Instead, he chose to believe the truth of the gospel message he had received, and go to his earthly death entirely convinced that life in Christ is eternal. He was prepared to gain his life by losing it.

We, understandably, mostly want to take the road of avoidance, to forget about death until we can no longer ignore it. It is highly unlikely that we (in twenty-first century Britain) would not be put to the test as Alban was, but many of us desperately try to cling on to youth, and hope that treatments, cures and vaccines will be found for everything that might see us off.

It is certainly hard to face up to death ... both our own and that of those we love ... and our multi-media society certainly does not help us. We live with nagging fear, buried deep inside us, which we push away rather than face up to. If this fear becomes too much of a preoccupation, it can blight our existence marring even the simple pleasures life. But facing up to it, Jesus suggest, is the way to real life, a life in which we know our limitations, can be realistic about them, and not to be afraid to take risks for the sake of love and truth.

The result, according to our Gospel reading, is worth it. The result is eternal life, beginning now.

The Creed

Do you believe and trust in God the Father,
the source of all being and life,
the one for whom we exist?

All We believe and trust in him.

Do you believe and trust in God the Son,
who took our human nature,
died for us and rose again?

All We believe and trust in him.

Do you believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit,
who gives life to the people of God
and makes Christ known in the world?

All We believe and trust in him.

This is the faith of the Church.

All This is our faith.

We believe and trust in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

Eucharistic Prayer (prayer E)

The Lord be with you

All and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give thanks and praise.

It is indeed right and good,
our duty and our salvation,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
holy Father, almighty and eternal God.
For following the example of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, your holy martyr Alban shed his blood for the glory of your name.
His death reveals your power made perfect in our human frailty.
You choose the weak and make them strong in bearing witness to you
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
With joyful hearts we echo on earth
the song of the angels in heaven
as they praise your glory without end:

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

We praise and bless you, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command,
send your Holy Spirit,
that broken bread and wine outpoured
may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you.

He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did,
in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross.

Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation,
we proclaim his death and resurrection
until he comes in glory.

Great is the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Lord of all life,
help us to work together for that day
when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.

Look with favour on your people,
gather us in your loving arms
and bring us with Alban and all the saints to feast at your table in heaven.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray

All     Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
          your kingdom come,
          your will be done,
          on earth as in heaven.
          Give us today our daily bread.
          Forgive us our sins
          as we forgive those who sin against us.
          Lead us not into temptation
          but deliver us from evil.

          For the kingdom, the power,
          and the glory are yours
          now and for ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All     Though we are many, we are one body,
          because we all share in one bread.

All     Lamb of God,
          you take away the sin of the world,
          have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
          you take away the sin of the world,
          have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
          you take away the sin of the world,
          grant us peace.

Draw near with faith.

Receive the body of our Lord Jesus Christ
which he gave for you,
and his blood which he shed for you.

Eat and drink in remembrance that he died for you,
and feed on him in your hearts
by faith with thanksgiving.

All We do not presume to come to this your table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in your manifold and great mercies.
We are not worthy
so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table.
But you are the same Lord
whose nature is always to have mercy.
Grant us therefore, gracious Lord,
so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ
and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body
and our souls washed through his most precious blood,
and that we may evermore dwell in him,
and he in us.
Amen.

Communion is distributed.

Prayer after Communion

God our Redeemer, whose Church was strengthened
by the blood of your martyr Alban:
so bind us, in life and death, to Christ's sacrifice that our lives, broken and offered with his,
may carry his death and proclaim his resurrection in the world;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen

All Almighty God,
we thank you for feeding us
with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
Through him we offer you our souls and bodies
to be a living sacrifice.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit
to live and work
to your praise and glory.
Amen.
